

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

STINGER BASKETBALL

November 23, 1987

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL (Upcoming games)

Away - November 27-28 York Tournament

Concordia hosted the 16th Pepsi Invitational this past weekend. (See P.6 for summary) and their crosstown rivals, McGill Martlets, came away with the championship. Concordia travels to Toronto this weekend for the York Tournament. The Stingers are steadily improving and look for a strong showing at York.

MEN'S BASKETBALL (Upcoming games)

Away November 27-28 Queen's University Tourney

The Stingers limped home from Toronto this past weekend (See p. 4 for details) and will travel to Kingston for the Queen's Tourney on Friday. The Stingers showed their inexperience at the N.I.T. and hope to regroup in time for Friday's match-up against Windsor.

-30-

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

STINGER BASKETBALL

MEN'S BASKETBALL

The Stingers basketball team competed in the prestigious National Invitational Tournament November 19-21. After a promising opening game victory, 68-66 over St. Mary's Concordia ran into the Ontario jinx.

On Friday night, Concordia was overwhelmed 105-55 in their most lopsided defeat in 5 years. Matters went from bad to worse as Concordia lost star forward Dino Perrin indefinitely (broken foot) in a 86-72 loss to 5th ranked Western. Concordia was led by first year guard, Mike Cohee, who averaged 19 points per game. Next action for Concordia is at the Queen's Tournament November 27-28.

-30-